

Privacy Policy

Introduction

Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc. ("Teva") is providing this notice to explain our online information practices and how we handle the personal information that you provide to us. This Privacy Policy applies only to the use of data collected by this website located at www.tevarequests.com, (the "Website") and does not apply to any other data collected by Teva online or offline. "Personal information" means information that identifies you or could reasonably be used to identify you and which is submitted to and/or collected by Teva and maintained by Teva in an accessible form. Examples of personal information include your name, postal address and your telephone number. As used in this Privacy Policy, "We" includes Teva, and its related companies, as well as any third-party vendors we hire to assist in the administration of the Website. These vendors are required to maintain the confidentiality of the user information to which they become privy in accordance with the terms of this Privacy Policy and to otherwise abide by the terms of this Privacy Policy. Please read this Privacy Policy before using the Website or submitting information to us.

Collection and Use of Your Information

Visitors to the Website can access the Website's home page, and browse some areas of the site, without disclosing any personally identifiable information. In some cases, you must register or log in to access portions of the Website. Visitors that register on our Website may be asked to provide identifying information, such as name and contact information. Our primary purpose in collecting and processing such information is to provide you with services that you request or to personalize product, service, or other information for you. Teva may also use your personal information to contact you in the future by phone, fax, mail or email, for the purpose of evaluating your experience and satisfaction with this grants website and process, or to provide you with additional information about our products and services. We may also share your personally identifiable information with other Teva business units or affiliates, our agents, contractors, or business partners, in order that they may perform services for us. While the information you provide will be maintained for a commercially reasonable time by Teva for administrative, liability, and archival purposes, your personally identifying information is not shared with a third-party, other than (i) as required by law, (ii) to protect and defend the rights of Teva, the websites or the users of the websites, (iii) as incident to a corporate sale, merger, reorganization, dissolution, bankruptcy or similar event, (iv) under circumstances we believe reasonably necessary to protect the personal safety of users of Teva products and services, the websites or the public, or (v) as is otherwise described in this Privacy Policy.

We may conduct research on a user's demographics, interests and behaviors based upon information provided to us during use of our website(s) and we may combine your information with information collected from other individuals to produce anonymous, aggregated statistical information. Aggregated data does not include personally identifiable information. We use this demographic information, such as the percentage of male or female visitors, or the percentage of visitors within certain age brackets, to improve the content of our site. We also may share this anonymous, aggregated information, which does not identify personal identifiable information, with third parties.

Security and Use of Information

To prevent unauthorized access to the websites or any portion thereof, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have enacted commercially reasonable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure, during transmission and storage, the information we collect online.

Special Note Regarding Website Use By Children

The Website are neither directed to nor designed for use by children under the age of eighteen.

Links to Other Sites

As a resource to our visitors, Teva may provide links to other websites. Please be aware that these other websites are not covered under Teva's Privacy Policy. We suggest that when linking to another site, including another Teva site not covered by this Privacy Policy, you always read that web site's privacy policy before volunteering any personally identifiable information.

Cookies and IP Addresses

Cookies are text files that are stored on a website user's computer by the website. Cookies typically contain user-related information such as preferences, status, settings, etc. The purpose of most cookies is to make use of the Internet easier and quicker. Most browsers allow the user to choose settings that allow the use of cookies that provide notice to the user when cookies are being stored, and/or that refuse all cookies. An IP address is a unique identifying number that is automatically assigned to any computer connected to the Internet. Depending on the nature of your Internet connection, the IP address may change each time you connect or may always be the same number for that computer. We reserve the right to log IP addresses for system administration, security, statistical analysis, demographic analysis of website use, and other such functions.

Public Forums

To the extent that the websites make forums, message boards and/or news groups available to you, please remember that any information that is disclosed in these areas becomes public information. You should exercise caution in disclosing personally identifying information there or in any other public section of the Internet.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

Teva may, from time to time in its sole discretion, change or modify this Privacy Policy. Any changes or modification will be effective upon posting of the revisions on the Website. At any given time, your access and use of the Website and provision of information is governed by the Privacy Policy then in effect. Teva may post changes or modifications to referenced policies and guidelines without your approval, and may determine whether and when any such changes apply to you. Your continued use of the Website following Teva's posting of any changes or modifications will constitute your acceptance of such changes or modifications. Should you not wish to be bound by the modified Privacy Policy, you should not access the Website.

Communications To Us

Comments, suggestions, or other communications sent by you to us are deemed to be non-confidential. We have no obligations of any kind in relation to such comments, suggestions, or communications and are free to use or distribute them in any way, including in relation to the administration, update, or improvement of the Website, without compensation to the author, sender, or any other party. By using the websites, you signify your assent to this Privacy Policy. Should you have any privacy-related or compliance-related questions or concerns, you may contact us at USPrivacy@tevapharm.com.
